HONORS THESIS (FREN 400 or GERM 400 or SPAN 400, 1 credit, A/F grading only)
The Honors Thesis is designed with and approved by a supervising MDFL faculty member. The thesis allows students to pursue additional study and research in world languages, cultures and literatures. Students should select a paper from a previous 300-level course and, ideally, work with the same faculty member to expand and to improve their work; students should not select a new topic. The final version of the thesis should be 10-15 pages, including any bibliography and footnotes. A public presentation of part of the research in the target language is optional. A minimum grade of B+ is required on the final draft of the thesis in order for the candidate to be awarded Department Honors.
Prerequisites: admission to the MDFL Honors Program and consent of the Thesis Director
