Please note: Scholarship candidates must choose a major or minor in the Humanities area, with preference given to those selecting English and/or journalism. Recipients must maintain a B average or better in college courses.

Teacher-respondent, please complete the remainder of this form.

I nominate _____ for consideration as an Augustana Fryxell Scholar.

How long and in what capacities have you known the nominee?

How does this nominee compare:

- with other students whom you have taught or are teaching?

- with other college-bound students in terms of maturity, scholarship, and aptitude for college studies?

With approximately how many other students are you comparing the nominee? _____

What skills has the nominee demonstrated in composition, reading and analysis of literature, creative writing, and/or journalism? Please specify the kinds of work, essays, or assignments upon which your judgment is based. (If there is a particular outstanding effort which you could send along or from which you could excerpt, please do so. Your own comments here will be of great importance either with or without the submission of other evidence.)

The Augustana Fryxell Scholar should be a student of intellectual curiosity, critical and self-critical insight, academic dedication, and good character. The Scholar should also show promise for a distinguished career in some area which requires preparation in English or journalism. What qualities of mind and character do you prize most in the student you are recommending?

Please attach additional sheet(s) if you have more comments.
