

Overview of Curriculum Requirements for Modern Foreign Languages (MDFL) Major

The Modern Foreign Languages major combines the study of two different modern world languages. Majors select a Primary and Secondary Languages (French, German or Spanish). Students with undergraduate credit--from an accredited college or university--in modern foreign languages not offered at Augustana (e.g. Arabic, Chinese, Italian, Russian, etc.) may apply to the Dept. Chair to have those credits/languages apply toward their MDFL major.
